Well... editing took longer than expected this chapter. I tried experimenting with Topaz DeNoise on some of the pages. Tell me what you think! Unfortunately, I ran into issues when it came to the darker tones. The low-quality raws require me to manually adjust the levels. And Topaz DeNoise just blurs the texture. Woe is me! But I actually ordered the 4th volume of the manga and will scan it myself, so the quality and turnover time should improve.
